ORDER

Issued: November 14, 2007

Released: November 15, 2007

Nextel Communications Inc.'s ("Nextel") and City of Boston ("Boston") have filed their Status Report on November 13, 2007,¹ wherein Nextel and Boston represent categorically:

The remaining issue concerns the level of reimbursement for Boston's external legal fees. As of today [November 13], the parties have reached a settlement on this issue.

Nextel and Boston further state that they "will promptly finalize the Frequency Reconfiguration Agreements ("FRAs") for submission to the 800 MHz Transition Administrator ["TA"], and notify the presiding officer when the FRAs have been so submitted.

IT IS ORDERED that Status Report dated November 13, 2007, IS APPROVED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that initial review and approval of FRAs by the TA as contemplated by Nextel and Boston IS APPROVED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Enforcement Bureau and the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau SHALL COMMENT and/or NOT OBJECT and or APPROVE the FRAs as reviewed and approved by the TA.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that it is not required to submit the final approved FRA documents for consideration by the Presiding Judge, unless there is significant disagreement.

¹ Status Report filed in compliance with Order FCC 07M-42, released October 31, 2007.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that after the aforementioned reviews and upon receipt by the Presiding Judge of an appropriate Motion to Terminate signed by all parties,² the Presiding Judge will consider the motion and, if appropriate, terminate this proceeding.
